

4th Grade Math Goals for the 1st Nine Weeks

I can represent and identify whole numbers up to 1,000,000 including forms.

I can represent and model decimals.

I can compare and order numbers with decimals.

I can represent standard, expanded, and word form of decimals.

Starting multiplication and division

4th Grade Math Goals for the 2nd Nine Weeks

I can multiply 3 by 1 and 2 by 2 whole numbers.

I can divide 3 by 1-digit whole numbers with and without remainders.

I can identify unknowns in expressions.

Study multiplication and long division!

Need to fluently know basic \times and \div

4th Grade Math Goals for the 3rd Nine Weeks

I can compare and contrast 3D shapes based on their attributes.

I can describe and classify quadrilaterals in models.

I can represent fractions using models and number lines.

I can compare and order fractions less than and greater than one.

Look at fractions in the real world

4th Grade Math Goals for the 4th Nine Weeks

I can represent and rename equivalent fractions.

I can use a ruler to measure length to the nearest cm or quarter inch.

I can determine elapsed time and convert between units.

I can HELP MYSELF and continue practicing math.

Prep for Lincoln!