

Jami Smith

Jami Smith is a 1988 graduate of Chickasha High School. In 1993, Jami received a Bachelor's degree in Music from Oklahoma Baptist University. Jami established Spring Rain Ministries, a non-profit ministry which has produced numerous independent albums. A seasoned worship leader, Smith has led music for Passion conferences, OneDay, the National Acteens Conference, and the Student Live conference. Her songs are featured on the Passion CD and the WOW Worship CD. The songs "Salt and Light" and "Wash Over Me" from her 2002 album release "Wash over Me" were chart toppers on Christian radio in the U.S. Jami has been a featured artist during Anniversary Ceremonies at the site of the Murray Building Bombing and has had her songs featured on several TV commercials.

Jami Smith's other passions include honoring teachers for the sacrificial work they do in the classroom. For several years, Smith has organized a benefit concert for educators in the Oklahoma City metro area. Smith rallied business as well as religious and political leaders to give back to teachers. She wrote the song "You Dreamed for Me" as a thank you to teachers.

Jami was inducted into the Chickasha High School Hall of Fame in 2013.
